Few wedding receptions are as gorgeous as the ones held on the pristine islands of Malaysia. Celebrities like Cindy Crawford and Amber Chia are among the many stars who have opted for a beach wedding.

ISLAND OPTIONS

Perhentian Island

Voted number 13 in last year's CNN's World's 100 Best Beaches, Perhentian Island (Kecil) is fringed by white sand beaches and crystalline waters. As part of the National Marine Park in the state of Terengganu, this is an island whose pure beauty will never fade – just like your love.

Langkawi Island

Known as the jewel of Kedah, Langkawi has the added benefit of being a duty-free island. This, coupled with its lush verdant rainforest and glistening turquoise waters makes Langkawi the perfect place for lovebirds to exchange their vows. One of its beaches, Tanjung Rhu, is also listed on CNN's World's 100 Best Beaches at number 49.

Redang Island

Are you and your significant other diving enthusiasts? Then head on to Redang Island – a diver's haven that will hold special significance for the both of you.

Pangkor Island

Celebrate your marriage amidst swaying coconut trees, azure waters and breathtaking views at this beautiful Island. Pure and unpretentious, this location will ensure that the focus is you.

Kapas Island

Touted as the 'best kept secret in the East Coast', Kapas Island means 'cotton island' due to the fine and white sand on its beaches. It takes just a 10-minute speedboat ride to reach this beautiful hideaway from the Marang Jetty.

Tioman Island

According to legend, Tioman Island is the resting place of a beautiful dragon princess who was captivated by the area's beauty and decided to turn into an island. With its rich marine life, it is voted number 21 in last year's CNN's World's 100 Best Beaches and was selected as one of the world's best beaches by TIME magazine in the 1970s.

Gemia Island

A little less known than its sister island, Kapas, Gemia Island is nonetheless just as beautiful. Being less popular also means the atmosphere is peaceful and quiet – perfect for a dreamy wedding.
