

TRANQUIL EAST COAST (3D2N)

EXPLORE THE WONDERS OF KUALA TERENGGANU WITH NCR TRAVEL AND TOURS.

If there is one word to describe Kuala Terengganu it would be "rustic". Life is slower here but no less charming as you visit fishing villages and rich cultural heritages. It is renowned for its powdery white beaches, picturesque islands, quality hand-painted batik cloth and seafood.

Let NCR Travel and Tours introduce you to one of Malaysia's most laid-back destination.

HIGHLIGHTS

Kuala Terengganu Town

Here is where you will find everything that gives Kuala Terengganu its unique identity – sea products (salted fish and dried cuttlefish), jungle ferns and handmade batik cloth.

Duyung Island

As Kuala Terengganu is a fishing village, the art of boat making plays an important role in the local economy. Amazingly, the centuries-old art is fairly unhampered by modern approaches – the master craftsman uses his vast experience to build boats ranging from fishing boats to luxury yachts.

Batu Baruk Beach

One of the most popular beaches among locals, this place is famous for its fine beach sand as well as its magnificent floating mosque. Swimming however is not recommended here as the currents are too strong. You can also catch people flying the wau – a wide traditional crescent-shaped kite.

Villages and cottage industries

Explore the lifestyle of the traditional Terengganu riverside villages as well as several cottage industries such as attap leaf roof waving, palm sugar making and many more!
