

MORE THAN 500 YEARS OF HISTORY (8 HOURS) DELVE BACK IN TIME IN MALACCA WITH NCR TRAVEL AND TOURS

A hill believed to have been given to a princess from China who arrived in the late 1400s. A Portuguese fort with walls three metres thick built in 1512 and flanked by 16th century cannons. A brick red Dutch Municipal Council complex built in 1650, and recognition as an UNESCO World Heritage Site in 2008 are some of the key attractions in this culturally rich state believed to be the cradle of the Malay Sultanate and one of the oldest states in Malaysia.

Let NCR Travel bring you the authentic experience of history-rich Malacca.

HIGHLIGHTS

St Peter's Church

Visit the oldest Christian Church still in use in Malaysia

Sultan's Well

The Sultan's Well was constructed during the reign of Sultan Mansur Shah for his wife, Princess Li-Poh from China. The well is said to never dry out even in the severest of droughts.

A' Famosa

A Famosa is a Portuguese fortress located in Malacca, Malaysia. It is among the oldest surviving European architectural remains in Southeast Asia. The Porta de Santiago, a small gate house, is the only remaining part of the fortress still standing.

Jonket Street

The Malacca Chinatown, Jonker Street is a delightful place for antiques, local crafts, nyonya food and nyonya heritage. On Fridays and Saturdays, the street is turned into a night market selling delicious finger foods and souvenirs.
