

AN IDYLIC REST

TOUR SELANGOR ISLANDS PULAU KETAM (CRAB ISLAND) WITH NCR TRAVEL

A quaint fishing village, with wooden roads built on stilts. A mesmerising blue and silver dome glittering in the morning sun in the middle of a courtyard. Beautiful doorways decorated with intricate carvings of dragons and heavenly motifs. An aura of calmness and tranquility soothes your tired soul.

Let NCR Travel help you unwind with a tour to the Pulau Ketam (Crab Island) fishing village, Blue Mosque, Thean Hou Temple and the Palace of the Selangor Sultan.

Pulau Ketam (Crab Island)

The 30-minute boat ride to get to the island is a scenic one passing mangrove swamps, and birds such as storks, herons and even eagles. On the island take a leisurely stroll around the village where you can see locals processing seafood - from drying anchovies to shelling parboiled prawns. A hearty lunch will be served at a restaurant here.

Sultan of Selangor's palace

The Istana Alam Shah is the official residence of the Sultan of Selangor. Steeped in tradition and history, this palace is where most royal ceremonies are conducted.

Blue Mosque

Known officially as the Sultan Salahuddin Abdul Aziz Shah Mosque, it was nicknamed the 'Blue Mosque' due to its distinguished blue and silver dome. It is the largest mosque in the country, and the second largest in Southeast Asia.

Thean Hou Temple

This temple is dedicated to the 'Thean Hou' goddess. The protector of fishermen and sailors, she is revered by the global Hainan community which has a strong seafaring tradition. This six level Chinese temple is located on 1.67 acres of land and is one of the biggest and most visually impressive in the country.
